PHILOSOPHY AND PURPOSE

I. The Carolina Bible College Mission

- A. Carolina Bible College is a local church ministry that is designed to prepare men and women for serving the Lord. Our philosophy is local church oriented. We believe that the hope for our culture will come from the local church, and the training is designed to help make a difference in lives.
- B. Carolina Bible College is distinctly Baptist in its philosophy and purpose and is dedicated to promote and defend Biblical truths held by Baptists throughout the centuries.
- C. Carolina Bible College is without denominational or governmental support or influence. Autonomy creates an atmosphere of liberty to teach Biblical truths without the necessity to gain governmental or denominational favor.
- D. Our staff is dedicated to produce students who love the Lord and His work. The college will provide basic training for preachers, teachers, and missionaries. We invite any serious Bible student to come be a part of Carolina Bible College.

II. College Distinctives

- A. With a burden to provide a means of education for full-time pastors, Christian workers and students who could not leave families, jobs, and other obligations to go to Bible College, Dr. Ronnie Simpson founded the Bright Light Baptist Institute in the fall of 1991 as a ministry of Bright Light Baptist Church, Concord, North Carolina.
- B. Due to the growth and desire of local churches to participate in the learning opportunities, the name of Bright Light Baptist Institute was changed to Carolina Bible College in 1993. Since this time the college has grown to include twenty-five satellite colleges in the United States and more than 100 mission works on foreign fields.
- C. On September 1, 2006, the correspondence program and Satellite College Association was placed under the name of Macedonia Baptist College. Carolina Bible College continues to operate as a Satellite College under the ministry of Bright Light Baptist Church in association with Macedonia Baptist College. Macedonia Baptist College offers a correspondence program for students as well as a Satellite College Association to assist pastors in the establishment of Bible Institutes with their local churches.
- D. The primary focus of the ministry of Carolina Bible College is the working student who has neither the time nor resources to attend a full-time Bible College. Night classes that meet once a week were designed with the needs of this student in mind. The class lecture is supplemented with out-of-class weekly reading assignments to meet the educational criteria for the student.
- E. For students unable to attend the night classes at Carolina Bible College, Macedonia

Baptist College offers a Distance Learning program. As part of its educational ministry, the Macedonia Baptist College currently has over 150 students enrolled in its correspondence school.

- F. In 1996 the Association of Satellite Colleges was established and has since grown to include twenty-five satellite colleges in the United States and curriculum has been provided to more than 100 missionaries on foreign mission fields to assist in the establishment of Bible colleges and institutes.

III. Local Church Focus

- A. The Autonomy of the Local Church – Carolina Bible College holds strongly to the philosophy of local church autonomy. We believe the local church is the center of God’s working to evangelize the world with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We believe the pastor of the church is the most qualified individual for the training of preachers and making disciples. Therefore, our goal is to assist the local pastor in the training of preachers and Christian workers by providing the necessary tools for education and discipleship.
- B. By providing educational opportunities under the direction and authority of the local church, students desirous of obtaining Biblical training can do so without having to leave their local church to attend Bible college elsewhere. This keeps the students involved in the ministry of their local church while gaining an education which is consistent with the philosophy and doctrines of their pastor and church leaders.
- C. Multiplication by Division – Carolina Bible College promotes the philosophy of multiplying by dividing. Our goal is not to grow into an immense local educational institution, but rather start small training centers in local churches to produce Christian leaders for the work of the ministry. This philosophy allows for hands-on or practical training with students and also eliminates the necessity of expensive facilities and staff.
- D. Respect for Local Church Authority – By keeping the training of preachers and Christian workers under the authority of the pastor and the local church, graduates develop much needed respect for the pastor’s authority. A servant’s heart is more readily developed by allowing the pastor to train the student while also serving by his/her side.

ADMISSIONS

ADMISSIONS POLICY

1. Since the express purpose of CBC is to train men and women for Christian service, it is expected that those who seek admission manifest evidence of good character, a dedication to purpose, a willingness to learn, and a sincere desire to know the will of God. Such demands the utmost in personal discipline of the Christian life.

Carolina Bible College has been declared by appropriate state authority exempt from the requirements for licensure under provisions of North Carolina General Statutes Section (G.S.) 116-15 (d) for exemption from licensure with respect to religious education.

Exemption from licensure is not based upon any assessment of program quality under established licensing standards.

GENERAL CONDUCT

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINE

The administration of Carolina Bible College strives to accept students who express a sincere desire to live for Jesus Christ and whose character gives evidence that is consistent with such a profession.

Students and faculty of Carolina Bible College are expected to deport themselves in a manner that befits a Christian and brings honor to the Lord Jesus Christ. Attendance at Carolina Bible College is a privilege and the college specifically reserves the right to dismiss students who conduct themselves in a manner incompatible with its purpose and functions.

Students from other denominations and religious affiliations are welcome to study at the Carolina Bible College. However, promotion of doctrinal positions and controversial subjects opposed to The Statement of Faith and Controversial Issues as discussed in the section of this catalog entitled College Distinctives by a student in the name or representation of Carolina Bible College, will be grounds for dismissal. The final decision in all matters of discipline will be decided by the president of Carolina Bible College.

Carolina Bible College is a ministry of Bright Light Baptist Church. Therefore, its operation is subject to the guidelines of the constitution of Bright Light Baptist Church, Concord, North Carolina.

LOCAL CHURCH ISSUES

Carolina Bible College's philosophy and purpose is centered on the ministry and authority of the local church and pastor.

Students must maintain a proper New Testament Christian relationship with their local pastor and church. Any student dismissed from a local church due to immorality, unfaithfulness, false doctrine, disloyalty, dissension or any other such matter opposed to New Testament standards of Christian conduct may be dismissed from enrollment at the discretion of the President of Carolina Bible College.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe that the King James Version Bible is the Word of God for the English speaking people, supernaturally inspired, so that it is inerrant and preserved by God in its verbal inspiration, so that it is an authoritative standard for every age and every life.

We believe that God, out of His love for men, sent Christ into the world to save sinners.

We believe Jesus Christ is the Son of God and the only way to eternal salvation.

We believe that Jesus Christ in the flesh was both God and man, that He was born of a virgin and that He lived a sinless life, in which he taught and wrought mighty works and wonders and signs exactly as revealed in the four Gospels, that He was crucified, died as a penalty for our sins and was raised from the dead, bodily on the third day. Later, He ascended to the Father's right hand where He is head of the church and intercedes for believers, and from whence He is coming again personally, bodily, and visibly.

We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ made a perfect atonement for sin through His death. By His shed blood we are redeemed from our sins. He became sin for us that we might be justified through faith in His shed blood.

We believe that once a person is saved he becomes a new creation in Christ. The goal of the Christian will be to grow in spiritual maturity through obedience to the Word of God and the indwelling Spirit.

We believe the church exists for the purpose of sharing the exciting message of Christ with our community and with the world. We also believe it is the responsibility of the church to develop mature disciples of Christ through joyful worship service and meaningful Bible studies.

STATEMENT OF CONTROVERSIAL ISSUES

Qualifications of a Preacher

We believe that this office should be held by an individual who is qualified by the standard set in I Timothy 3:1-7. Specifically, we believe that this office should be held by a man, either single or having only one wife. Divorced persons are disqualified from this office.

We believe that the statement "husband of one wife" excludes women from this office.

Charismatic Issue

We believe that the sign gifts, specifically speaking in tongues and prophecy, were temporal and were exclusively used as signs to the Jews and ceased with the completion of the Scriptures.

Note: For more details please review the Policy & Doctrinal Statement of Carolina Bible College.

64 hours	Associate of Theology

COLLEGE CURRICULUM

I. Lesson Material

A. Lesson Development – During many years of study and preparation of educational material, we at Carolina Bible College have developed the philosophy that one should glean from every source and experience available. Our lessons have been gleaned from many sources, many sermons, and many life experiences. We continually encourage the students of Carolina Bible College to purchase a variety of resource material on each subject they wish to study. This allows the student to be exposed to varying opinions.

B. Lesson Books

1. The staff of Carolina Bible College and Macedonia Baptist College have compiled and written more than 100 lesson books containing twelve lessons on Bible subjects. The lesson books make up the core of the curriculum for the college. These lessons were developed from a historical Baptist perspective and find their basis in the 1611 King James Authorized Version of the Bible.
2. Each lesson book contains twelve outlined lessons. These lessons are designed for a twelve week quarter and offer doctrinally sound content for instructors and students.

II. Textbooks

A. Choice of Textbooks – Carolina Bible College provides textbooks which relate to the content of each lesson book. Obviously, we do not necessarily agree with all of the concepts, philosophies and ideologies of these authors. However, we choose the most doctrinally sound textbooks possible to enhance the education of the student. It is our desire to encourage our graduates and affiliate pastors to write books on subjects which could be implemented into the curriculum of Carolina Bible College.

B. Disclaimer – Carolina Bible College and its staff members only use and promote the Authorized Version. We believe it is the Word of God for the English speaking people, supernaturally inspired, so that it is inerrant and preserved by God in its verbal inspiration, so that it is an authoritative standard for every age and every life. Though some of the textbooks and authors found use perversions of Scripture, we do not agree with their error and operate on the philosophy of “eating the fish and throwing away the bones.”

C. Costs of Textbooks – Carolina Bible College charges full retail on all textbooks. The profit from the sale of these books is used to maintain low tuition charges as well as assist in providing curriculum at no charge to missionaries and churches on foreign fields through Macedonia Baptist College.

D. Requirement of Textbook Purchase – Our desire at Carolina Bible College is to provide a quality education at the lowest possible cost to the student. All students are required to purchase textbooks from the college bookstore in order to cover administrative costs considering the low tuition fees. Also, the purchase of textbooks will allow the student to develop an extensive library for future reference as the individual courses are completed.

This policy applies even if the student has a copy of the textbook or can borrow from another student or friend.

III. Homework Assignments

A. Textbook Assignments

1. There are three main Homework Assignments to be completed from the textbook.
2. Each of the three Homework Assignments contains the following:
 - a. Reading Assignment
 - b. Reading Comprehension
 - c. Writing Assignment
3. These three Homework Assignments are designed for a 13 week schedule as follows:
 - a. Homework Assignment 1 – Due week 5
 - b. Homework Assignment 2 – Due week 9
 - c. Homework Assignment 3 – Due week 13
4. The Exam – An exam of 25 questions will be given on week 13 for on-campus students. The exam will cover the 60 questions answered in the Reading Comprehension assignments. The test will consist of the following:
 - a. Short Answers – 10 answers
 - b. Multiple Choice – 10 answers
 - c. True/False – 5 answers

B. Lesson Assignments

1. The following assignments are to be completed from each lesson:
 - a. Lesson Review
 - b. In Your Own Words
2. These assignments are to be completed on a weekly basis; one lesson per week.
3. The Exam – An exam of 25 questions will be given from the content of the lessons and the lesson reviews. The exam will consist of the following:
 - a. Short Answers – 5 answers
 - b. Fill in the Blank – 5 answers
 - c. Matching – 10 answers (From Definitions of Important Terms/Phrases)
 - d. Essay Questions – 5 answers (General concepts presented in the lessons)

Note: Due to the nature of specific courses, some homework assignments will vary.

Attendance = 33.3%

Exams = 33.3%

HOMework

1. Each course has its own homework instruction sheet.
2. Point deductions will be made on late homework assignments as follows: 20 points off if not received by due date. No assignments will be accepted more than two weeks after the due date.

ATTENDANCE

A student is allowed 3 absences per class each quarter. If the student misses more than three classes, the student will receive a failing grade for that class. Students will be required to write a 50-word lesson summary for all classes that are missed. These summaries must be turned in to a CBC staff member.

EXAMS

Exams will be given on the 13th week of the quarter. If you are unable to take your exams on test night, you must see a CBC staff member to schedule a make-up date.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE CREDITS

Students must register to receive Christian Service Credit. A Weekly Activity Report should be returned to the college staff each week. At the end of the quarter, a Christian Service Evaluation form should be completed by the student's pastor or supervisor and returned to the college office.

LECTURE CREDIT

Students must register to receive Lecture Credit. Students may only receive Lecture Credit from classes in which they are enrolled. Lecture Credit will not be made available for those who audit classes. The Lecture Credit Homework Assignment must be completed for each class in which Lecture Credit is sought. These assignments are due on exam night, the 13th week of the quarter. To receive Lecture Credit, the student must successfully complete all attendance, homework and exam requirements.

Lecture Credit

I. Purpose

- A. To encourage a commitment to classroom attendance and instruction, the Lecture Credit was instituted for campus students. 1.0 hour of credit will be available for each course in which the student enrolls.
- B. The purpose of the Lecture Credit is to provide an opportunity for students to obtain credit for their commitment in faithful attendance to class.
- C. Lecture Credits are not available to correspondence students.

II. Requirements

- A. Students must fill out a registration form for each quarter indicating which classes they wish to receive lecture credit in.
- B. The tuition fee will be $12.00 per credit hour for each course.
- C. Students must complete the Lecture Hour Homework Assignment for each class in which Lecture Credit is sought. The homework assignment is to be turned in at the end of the quarter on exam night.
- D. Students must complete the attendance requirements for each class along with the required textbook and lesson review assignments. Students receiving a failing grade are not eligible for Lecture Credit for that particular class.

Christian Service Program

Purpose:

Christian Service is a “hands on” focused activity designed to integrate academic exercise with practical ministry in an observable and evaluative environment so the student will develop experience in a specific service activity.

The Christian Service Program of Carolina Bible College is designed to provide educational experience for students who wish to earn college credit in both Theology & Christian Education programs. Christian service is vital to developing skills to effectively minister in the church.

Christian Service offers three areas in which a student has the opportunity to enhance their Christian growth and development:

- In personal growth, a student is encouraged to use this program toward continued spiritual growth.
- In church life, a student is encouraged to become an integral part of a local church where spiritual gifts can be recognized and applied.
- In ministry, a student is encouraged to seek those areas of service that would allow for application of their giftedness and academic training.

The goal of the Christian Service Program is to promote student involvement in the ministries of local churches. Students may earn 2.0 credit hours per quarter for their participation. The tuition charge is $12.00 per credit hour.

Objectives:

That each participant will:

1. Be accountable for 1-2 hours of Christian Service activity each week in the ministry of his/her local church with a minimum of 10 weeks of involvement each quarter.
2. Apply the principles taught in the classroom to opportunities available within the ministry of their local church, therefore, building practical experience.
3. Identify and develop individual gifts and abilities through a variety of ministry opportunities including the following:

Church Planting	Prison & Detention Centers
Church Office/Clerical	Personal Evangelism/Visitation
Teaching/Sunday School	Vacation Bible Schools
Home/Foreign Missions	Children/Youth Ministries
Nursing Home Ministries	Bus Ministry
Street Preaching	Spanish Ministries
4. Exhibit skills in the areas of leadership, coordination and cooperation.
5. Participate in sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ with others

6. Develop practical experience under the direction and supervision of Church leaders.
7. Assist the local church in its ministry outreach by becoming involved and being held accountable.

Requirements:

Each participant must:

1. Complete a Christian Service Registration Form.
2. Complete and return to the college office a Weekly Activity Report signed by their pastor or supervisor coordinating the Christian service activities.

Note: For pastors seeking Christian Service credits, a member of the administrative staff of the college will act as supervisor.

3. Faithfully attend the services of their local church.
4. Return a Field Supervisor Evaluation form at the end of each quarter.

Grading:

1. All students who successfully fulfill their responsibilities for Christian Service will receive a grade of “P” (Passing). Any student who does not fulfill his/her responsibilities will receive a grade of “I” (Incomplete). These grades will be recorded each quarter on the Student Report for each participant.
2. The Christian Service grade will be based upon the following:
 - a. Completing and turning in all required forms : Registration Form, Weekly Activity Report, Field Supervisor Evaluation
 - b. Faithfulness to the assignments and activities; The demonstration of obedience to God’s Word
 - c. Maintaining a servant’s attitude in the performance of Christian service.

Things to consider:

1. Will the ministry activity allow you to use your spiritual gifts?
2. Is the ministry activity one that will challenge you and provide opportunity to increase your capacity for Christian service?
3. Will you have the necessary transportation and/or funds for this ministry?
4. Does the ministry activity meet the expectations of the 1-2 hour weekly minimum and a minimum of 10 weeks of involvement each quarter?
5. Will this ministry activity provide practical experience to enhance your future ministry goals?

General Information for Supervisors

Definition

A supervisor is an individual who by virtue of his office or responsibility, experience and ability, is entrusted with the overseeing of Carolina Bible College students as they participate in ministry-oriented Christian service to be applied as college credit.

Responsibilities of the Student

1. The student is to have the attitude of a servant, eager to learn through his/her experience.
2. The student is expected to fulfill his/her responsibilities each week during the academic quarter of the college.
3. The student is expected to participate in his/her assignment for a minimum of ten weeks each quarter.
4. The student will be responsible to complete a Weekly Activity Report to be reviewed and signed by the supervisor.
5. The student is to provide his/her supervisor with a Christian Service Evaluation Form at the beginning of the academic quarter to inform the supervisor of the qualities which he will be reporting on at the end of the quarter.
6. At the end of the academic quarter, the student is to meet with his/her supervisor for an interview after which the Christian Service Evaluation Form will be completed, signed and returned to the college office.

Responsibilities of the Supervisor

1. The student is to be supervised in all his/her responsibilities.
2. On a regular basis, give feedback, suggestions and encouragement to the student concerning his/her various responsibilities and any problems that may be present.
3. At the end of the academic quarter, please complete the Christian Service Evaluation Form, review it with the student, and return it to the college office. This evaluation will become part of the student's permanent record to serve as a basis for future recommendations for placement.
4. Relate any problems, concerns or suggestions to the college administrative staff. We seek to employ this Christian Service Program to help develop the ministry skills of the student as well as assist the local church and pastor in the work of the ministry.
5. Students will be evaluated in the following areas:
 - a. Application of Biblical principles
 - b. Evidence of gifts, abilities and personal work habits
 - c. Relationships to organizations and people
 - d. Effectiveness in evangelism
 - e. Communication skills, ability to adapt and attendance
 - f. Acceptance of responsibility and maintaining a correct attitude toward spiritual authority

The Introduction page should begin 1/3 of the way down the page with 1 1/2-inch margin on the left and a 1-inch margin on the right and bottom of the page. The page number should be in the center at the bottom.

This should also hold true for the first page of each chapter. All other pages should have a 1 1/2-inch margin at the top and left-hand side, with a 1-inch margin on the right and at the bottom. These pages should be numbered in the upper right-hand corner about one inch from the top and one inch from the right side of the paper. See example above on this page.

The contents page should be the third page of the thesis. The introduction should follow the contents page, then the first chapter, etc. After all the chapters have been written, then an end note page or pages, and then a bibliography page containing a list of books for further reference to the reader regarding the same subject matter as well as the books used in the research of the thesis.

INTRODUCTION

Statement of Faith

"...To set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us...That thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed" (Luke 1:1,4), we send forth the commonly believed confession of faith held among us, as follows:

Of the Scriptures

We believe that the Holy Bible was written by men supernaturally inspired; that it has truth without any admixture of error for its matter; and therefore is, and shall remain to the end of the age, the only complete and final revelation of the will of God to man; the true center of Christian union and the supreme standard by which all human conduct and opinions should be tried.

(Psalm 19:7-11; 119; Proverbs 30:5,6; Isaiah 8:20; Luke 24:25-27,44-45; John 5:39-47; 12:48; 17:17; Romans 3:4; 15:4; Ephesians 6:17; II Timothy 3:16-17; I Peter 1:23; II Peter 1:19-21; Revelation 22:19)

(EXPLANATORY)

1. By "Holy Bible" we mean that collection of sixty-six books, from Genesis to Revelation, which does not only contain and convey the Word of God, but IS the very Word of God. We believe that the 1611 Authorized Version is the preserved, inerrant Word of God for English speaking people.

2. By "inspiration" we mean the books of the Bible were written by holy men of old, as they were moved by the Holy Spirit, in such a definite way that their writings were supernaturally and verbally inspired and free from error, as no other writings have ever been or ever will be inspired.

Of the True God

We believe that there is one, and only one, living and true God, an infinite, intelligent Spirit, the Maker and Supreme Ruler of heaven and earth; inexpressibly glorious in holiness, and worthy of all possible honor, confidence and love; that in the unity of the Godhead, there are three Persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, equal in every divine perfection, and executing distinct but harmonious offices in the great work of redemption.

(Genesis 1:1; 17:1; Ex. 15:11; 20:2-3; Ps. 83:18; 90:2; 147:5; Matt. 28:19; Mk. 12:30; Jn. 4:24; 10:30; 15:26; Acts. 5:3-4; I Cor. 2:10-11; 8:6; 12:4-6; II Cor. 13:14; Eph. 2:18; 4:6; Phil. 2:5-6; I Tim. 1:17; I Jn. 5:7; Rev. 4:11)

Of the Holy Ghost

We believe the Holy Spirit is a divine Person; equal with God the Father and God the Son and of the same nature; that He was active in the creation; that in His relation to the unbelieving world, He restrains the Evil One until God's purpose is fulfilled; that He convicts of sin, of judgment, and righteousness; that He bears witness to the Truth of the Gospel in preaching and testimony; that He is the agent in the New Birth; that He seals, endues, guides, teaches, witnesses, sanctifies, and helps the believer.

(Genesis 1:1-3; Matt. 3:11; 28:19; Mk. 1:8; Lk. 1:35; 3:16; 24:49; Jn. 1:33; 3:5-6; 14:16,17,26; 15:26-27; 16:8-11,13; Acts 5:30-32; 11:16; Rom. 8:14-16,26-27; Eph. 1:13-14; II Thess. 2:13; Heb. 9:14; I Pet. 1:2)

Of the Devil or Satan

We believe that Satan was once holy, and enjoyed heavenly honors; but through pride and ambition to be as the Almighty, fell and drew after him a host of angels; that he is now the malignant prince of the power of the air, and the unholy god of this world. We hold him to be man's great tempter, the enemy of the Triune God, the accuser of the saints, the author of all false religions, the chief power behind the present apostasy; the lord of the Antichrist; and the author of all the powers of darkness—destined, however, to be finally defeated at the hand of God's Son, and to the judgment of an eternal justice in hell, a place prepared for him and his angels.

(Is. 14:12-15; Ez. 28:14-17; Matt. 4:1-3; 25:41; Lk. 22:3-4; Jn. 14:30; II Cor. 11:13-15; Eph. 2:2; I Thess. 3:5; II Thess. 2:8-11; II Pet. 2:4; I Jn. 2:22; 3:8; 4:3; II Jn. 7; Jude 6; Rev. 12:7-10; 13:13-14; 20:1-3,10)

Of the Creation

We believe the Genesis account of creation, and that it is to be accepted literally, and not allegorically or figuratively; that man was created directly in God's own image and after His own likeness; that man's creation was not a matter of evolution or evolutionary changes of species, or development through interminable periods of time from lower to higher forms; that all animal and vegetable life was made directly, and God's established law was--they should bring forth only "after their own kind."

(Genesis 1:1; 1:26,27; 2:21-23; Ex. 20:11; Neh. 9:6; Jer. 10:12; Jn. 1:1-3; Acts 4:24; 17:23-26; Rom. 1:20; Col. 1:16-17; Heb. 11:3; Rev. 10:6)

Of the Fall of Man

We believe that man was created in innocence under the law of his Maker, but by voluntary transgression fell from his sinless and happy state, in consequence of which, all mankind are now sinners, not by constraint, but of choice; and therefore under just condemnation without defense or excuse.

(Genesis 3:1-6,24; Ez. 18:19-20; Rom. 1:18,20,28; 3:10-19; 5:12,19; Gal. 3:22; Eph. 2:1-3)

Of the Virgin Birth

We believe that Jesus Christ was begotten of the Holy Ghost in a miraculous manner; born of Mary, a virgin, as no other man was ever born or can ever be born of a woman, and that He was born the Son of God and God the Son.

(Genesis 3:15; Ps. 2:7; Is. 7:14; Matt. 1:18-25; Lk. 1:35; Jn. 1:14; Gal. 4:4)

Of the Atonement for Sin

We believe that the salvation of sinners is wholly of grace; through the mediatorial office of the Son of God, who by the appointment of the Father, freely took upon Him our nature, yet without sin, honored the divine law by His personal obedience, and by His atonement consisted not in setting us an example by His death as a martyr, but as the voluntary substitution of Himself in the sinner's place, the just dying for the unjust. Christ the Lord, bearing our sins in His own body on the tree; that, having risen from the dead, He is now enthroned in heaven and uniting His wonderful person the tenderest sympathies with divine perfection. He is every way qualified to be a suitable, a compassionate, and an all-sufficient Saviour.

(Matt. 18:11; Jn. 3:16; 10:18; Acts 15:11; Rom 3:24,25; I Cor. 15:3,20; II Cor. 5:21; Gal. 1:4; Eph. 2:8; Phil. 2:7,8; Heb. 2:14, 7:25, 9:12-15; 12:2; I Pet. 2:24; 3:18; I Jn. 2:2; 4:10)

Of Grace in the New Creation

We believe that in order to be saved, sinners must be born again; that the new birth is a new creation in Christ Jesus; that it is instantaneous and not a process; that in the new birth one dead in trespasses and in sins is made a partaker of the divine nature and receives eternal life, the free gift of God; that the new creation is brought about in a manner above our comprehension, not by culture, not by character, nor by the will of man, but wholly and solely by the power of the Holy Spirit in connection with divine truth, so as to secure our voluntary obedience to the gospel; that its proper evidence appears in the holy fruits of the repentance and faith in the newness of life.

(Jn. 3:3,6,7; Acts. 2:41; 16:30,31; Rom. 6:23; II Cor. 5:17; Eph. 2:1; II Pet. 1:4; I Jn. 5:1)

Of the Freeness of Salvation

We believe in God's electing grace; that the blessings of salvation are made free to all by the gospel; it is the immediate duty of all to accept them by a cordial, penitent and obedient faith; and nothing prevents the salvation of the greatest sinner on earth but their own inherent depravity and voluntary rejection of the gospel, which rejection involves him in an aggravated condemnation.

(Is. 55:1,6,7; Matt. 11:28; Jn. 3:15-18,36; 5:40; 6:37; Acts 2:38; Rom. 8:29,30; 10:13; I Cor. 15:10; Eph. 1:1-14; 2:4,5; Col. 3:12; I Thess. 1:4; I Tim. 1:15; Titus 1:1; I Pet. 1:2; Rev. 22:17)

Of Justification

We believe the great blessing which Christ secures to such as believe in Him is justification. Justification includes the pardon from sin and the gift of eternal life on principles of righteousness and is bestowed not in consideration of any works of righteousness which we have done, but solely through faith in the Redeemer's blood. His righteousness is then imputed to us.

(Is. 53:11; Zech. 13:1; Acts 13:39; Rom. 1:17; 4:1-8; 5:1,9; 8:1; Gal. 3:11; Heb. 10:38)

Of Repentance and Faith

We believe repentance and faith are solemn obligations, and inseparable graces wrought in our souls by the quickening Spirit of God; thereby being deeply convicted of our guilt, danger and helplessness and of the way of salvation by Christ, we turn to God with unfeigned contrition, confession and supplication for mercy. At this same time we heartily receive the Lord Jesus Christ and openly confess Him as our only and all-sufficient Saviour.

(Ps. 51:1-4,7; Is. 55:6,7; Mk. 1:15; Lk. 12:8; 18:13; Acts 2:37,38; 20:21; Rom. 10:9-13)

Of the Church

We believe the church of Christ is a congregation of baptized believers associated by a covenant of faith and fellowship of the gospel; observing the ordinances of Christ; governed by His laws; and exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word. Its officers of ordination are pastors or elders and deacons, whose qualifications, claims and duties are clearly defined in the Scriptures. We believe the true mission of the church is found in the Great Commission: first, to make individual disciples; second, to build up the church; third, to teach and instruct as He has commanded. We do not believe in the reversal of this order. We hold that the local church has the absolute right of self-government, free from the interference of any hierarchy of individuals or organizations; and the one and only Superintendent is Christ through the Holy Spirit. It is scriptural for true churches to cooperate with each other in contending for the faith and the furtherance of the gospel; that every church is the sole and only judge of the measure and method of its cooperation. All matters of membership, policy, government, discipline, benevolence, and the will of the local church is final.

(Matt. 16:18; 28:19-20; Acts 2:41,42; 6:5-7; 14:23; 15:22,23; 20:17-28; I Cor. 5:11-13; 6:1-3; 16:1; II Cor. 8:23,24; 12:4; Eph. 1:22,23; 4:11; 5:23,24; Col. 1:18, I Tim. 3:1-13; I Pet. 5:1-4)

Of Baptism and the Lord's Supper

We believe Christian baptism is the immersion in water of the believer in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. It is by the authority of the local church to show forth, in a solemn and beautiful emblem, our faith in the crucified and risen Saviour. It is symbolic of our death to sin and resurrection to a new life. It is prerequisite to the privileges of a church relation and the Lord's Supper, in which the members of the church, by the use of unleavened bread and the unfermented fruit of the vine, are to commemorate together the dying love of Christ, always preceded by solemn self-examination.

(Matt. 3:6; 28:19,20; Jn. 3:23; Acts 2:41,42; 8:36-39; Rom. 6:3-5; I Cor. 11:23-34; Col. 2:12)

Of the Perseverance of the Saints

We believe that such only are the real believers as endure unto the end. Their preserving attachment to Christ is the grand mark which distinguishes them from superficial professors. A special Providence watches over their welfare and they are kept by the power of God through faith unto eternal salvation.

(Ps. 121:3; Matt. 6:30; 13:19-21; Jn. 8:31,32; 10:28,29; Rom. 8:23,35-39; Phil. 1:6; Col. 1:21-23; I Jn.2:19)

Of the Righteous and the Wicked

We believe there is a radical and essential difference between the righteous and the wicked; that such only as through faith are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and sanctified by the Spirit of our God, are truly righteous in His esteem. While all such as continue in impenitence and unbelief are in His sight wicked, and under the curse and this distinction holds among men both in and after death, in the everlasting felicity of the saved and the everlasting conscious suffering of the lost.

(Genesis 18:23; Prov. 11:31,14:32; Mal. 3:18; Matt. 7:13,14; 25:34,41; Lk. 9:26; 16:25; Jn. 8:21; 12:25; Acts 10:34,35; Rom. 1:17; 6:16-18,23; 7:6; I Cor. 15:22; Gal. 3:10; I Pet. 4:18; I Jn. 2:29; 3:7; 5:19)

Of Civil Government

We believe civil government is of divine appointment for the interest and good order of human society. Magistrates are prayed for, conscientiously honored and obeyed; except only in things opposed to the will of the Lord Jesus Christ; who is the only Lord of the conscience, and the coming Prince of the kings of the earth.

(Ex. 18:21; II Sam. 23:3; Dan. 3:17,18; Ps. 72:11; Matt. 10:28; 22:21; 23:10; Acts 4:19,20; 5:29; 23:5; Rom. 13:7; Phil. 2:10,11; Titus 3:1; I Pet. 2:13,14,17; Rev. 10:6)

Of the Resurrection and Return of Christ and related Events

We believe in and accept the sacred Scriptures upon these subjects at their face and full value. Of the Resurrection we believe Christ rose bodily "the third day according to the Scriptures" and that He ascended "to the right hand of the throne of God." He alone is our "merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God"; "that this same Jesus which was taken up from you into Heaven shall so come in like manner as you have seen Him go into Heaven..." "bodily, personally, and visibly; that the "dead in Christ shall rise first"; that the living saints "shall all be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump"; "that the Lord God shall give unto Him the throne of His Father, David"; and "that Christ shall reign a thousand years in righteousness until He hath put all enemies under His feet."

(Ps. 72:8; Is. 9:6,7; 11:4,5; 32:1; Matt. 24:27; 25:13; 28:6,7; Mk. 16:6,19; Lk. 1:32;24:2-6,39,51; Jn. 14:3; 20:27; Acts 1:9,11; I Cor. 15:4,25; Phil. 3:20,21; I Thess. 4:16-18; I Tim. 2:5; Heb. 2:17; 5:9,10; 8:1,6; 12:2; Jas. 5:8; I Jn. 2:1; Rev. 3:21; 20:1-6)

Of Missions

The command to give the Gospel to the world is clear and unmistakable and this commission was given to the church. Matthew 28:18-20: "And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

Mark 16:15: "And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature."

Luke 24:47: "And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem."

John 20:21: "Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my father hath sent me, even so send I you." Acts 1:8: "But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth."

Of the Grace of Giving

Scriptural giving is one of the fundamentals of the faith.

II Corinthians 8:7: "Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also." We are commanded to bring our gifts into the storehouse [common treasury of the church] upon the first day of the week. (Mal. 3:10)

I Corinthians 16:2: "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come." Abraham gave a tenth part of all he had. This was four hundred years before the law and was confirmed in the New Testament when Jesus said, "These ought ye to have done" (Matt. 23:23). Leviticus 27:30 tells us that the tithe is the Lord's. Malachi 3:10: "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it." In the New Testament, the common treasury was the church. Acts 4:34,35,37: "...And brought the prices of the things that were sold, and laid them down at the apostles' feet... Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet."

Of the Offices of Bishop & Deacon

All believers are to be witnesses and servants of Christ. However, the offices of bishop and deacon carry the authority of the local church by virtue of ordination. We, therefore, believe the offices of a bishop and deacon are reserved for men who have met high Scriptural qualifications. We hold that the statement "husband of one wife" excludes women from these offices as well as any man who has been divorced or whose wife has been divorced.

The word “diakonos”, “servant” or “deacon” is used in many variations because it is a general word meaning, “ to run errands; an attendant, i.e. (genitive case) a waiter (at table or in other menial duties); specially, a Christian teacher and pastor (technically, a deacon or deaconess):”

The term is “specially” applied to but not limited to any Christian, including children. (See Mark 9:35; Matt 23:11-12; John 12:25-26; Rom 14:4; Rom 16:1-2) The use of the word in each of these verses does not denote an office, but the action of the person. The difference between the verses above and the verses below is in the elected office of the church.

I Timothy 3:1, “This is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.”

I Timothy 3:13, “For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves, a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.”

The early church ordained deacons and bishops and thus established offices granting authority to these men under the church. The offices of bishop and deacon as created by the election of the church must fall under the jurisdiction of Scriptural qualification demands. A woman can indeed be a “diakonos”, but not hold the “position in authority”. In fact, every Christian can be a “diakonos” but not all are qualified to serve in the “office”.

A comparison may be made with the office of a bishop (preacher or pastor). Mark 16:15 states, “And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.” The great commission commands every Christian to “preach the Gospel”. The word “preach” is “kerusso (kay-roos'-so);” and means “to herald (as a public crier), especially divine truth (the gospel):” Every Christian must practice the proclamation of the Good News, but the office of a preacher is reserved to those who are called and meet the criteria found in 1 Tim 3:1-7. Preaching or proclaiming is the practice, but the term “bishop” reveals the office. Always remember the office of a servant (deacon) and the office of a bishop (preacher) are exclusive. (See I Timothy 3:1-12; Titus 1:5-9)

Of the Sign Gifts

We believe that the sign gifts found in the book of Acts, specifically speaking in tongues and prophecy, were temporal and were exclusively used as signs to the Jews and ceased with the completion of the New Testament. (I Corinthians 13:8-13)

From Acts 2:4-11, we conclude that the languages spoken on the Day of Pentecost were the foreign languages understood by those nations represented on that day. We also believe the warnings and instructions of Paul in I Corinthians 14 give the rules for governing speaking with tongues and show the error of the modern tongue movement.

Policy

The administration of Carolina Bible College strives to accept students who express a sincere desire to live for Jesus Christ and whose character gives evidence that is consistent with such a profession.

Students and faculty of Carolina Bible College are expected to deport themselves in a manner that befits a Christian and brings honor to the Lord Jesus Christ. Attendance at Carolina Bible College is a privilege and the college specifically reserves the right to dismiss students who conduct themselves in a manner incompatible with its purpose and functions.

Students from other denominations and religious affiliations are welcome to study at the Carolina Bible College. However, promotion of doctrinal positions and controversial subjects opposed to those of Carolina Bible College as discussed in the section above entitled Statement of Faith, will be grounds for dismissal from Carolina Bible College. The final decision in all matters of discipline will be decided by the President of Carolina Bible College.

Carolina Bible College is a ministry of Bright Light Baptist Church and therefore its operation, policies, and procedures are subordinate to the constitution of Bright Light Baptist Church, Concord, North Carolina.
